CHINA WORKERS BATTLE RED GUARDS

Local Stores Glad To Take Back Dolls

Refunds Ready For Return Of Flammable Toys

By CHET NEWMAN
Staff Writer

Those pretty Polish dolls with the flammable faces and hair were sold by at least two stores in the Twin Cities area.

However, officials at both Goldblatts and Shoppers Fair report they are happily giving refunds for the dolls regardless of their condition and have taken remaining stocks off the shelves.

Officials at Shoppers Fair said they haven't tested any dolls for the flammability, but customers have brought a few back and some said the hair was very quick burning.

"They are similar to the descriptions we've received," said a Shoppers Fair spokesman, "but we aren't sure they are the same ones."

'NO QUESTIONS'

Whether they are the dangerous ones or not, officials from both Goldblatt's and Shoppers Fair said they are "taking them gladly without any questions. We don't care if they're damaged or not, we'll take them back and refund the customers' money."

Other store officials called this morning said they had not stocked any dolls similar to the dangerous ones described in a news story in this newspaper yesterday.

That story brought more dolls and telephone calls to the fire department in Benton Harbor, St. Joseph and Benton township. St. Joseph township firemen said they haven't received any calls.

St. Joseph fire department officials said at least 10 calls were received Friday from citizens scattered around the county who feared they may have purchased one of the dangerous dolls.

WARNING

Fire Chief Horton Neidlinger yesterday warned parents to return the dolls to the stores where they were purchased or dispose of them "no matter how much your children have become attached to them."

Both Benton Harbor and St. Joseph firemen said the dolls readily burst into flame if exposed to fire or extreme heat.

And, Chief Neidlinger added, the nitrocellulose used in the faces becomes more flammable when the dolls are heated.

Blizzard Hits North Michigan

By Associated Press

A raging snowstorm swept across northern Michigan today, apparent offshoot of a Wisconsin blizzard.

The U.S. Weather Bureau reported "blizzard-like conditions" over the entire Upper Peninsula.

Up to eight inches of new snow was reported in several areas. Strong winds caused drifting.

Lower Southern Michigan, meanwhile, received rainfall with temperatures of up to 40 degrees but that condition wasn't to last. A sharp temperature drop was expected by tonight in the entire area.

Bomb Blast Kills Six In Las Vegas

Wife Freed After Brief Captivity

Few Clues In Colorado Plot

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The FBI and police pressed a search today for the person or persons who collected a $50,000 ransom for the wife of a bank president.

Betty Lue Hill, 42, was held captive in her home while a man in his early 20s gave telephone instructions to her husband, Leo, about how the money was to be transferred.

Mrs. Hill told police the man knocked at her door Friday morning, then forced his way into her home at gunpoint. He made her lie down on the hall floor and taped her wrists and legs.

She said the man went to the phone and called the First National Bank of Boulder, of which her husband is president. She said the man told the person who answered to have Hill call his wife immediately, because she "needed him."

Hill called back within a few minutes.

INSTRUCTED

The gunman told Hill to get the money and take it to a self-service laundry in Boulder. Mrs. Hill said he was holding a gun at her head while he talked to her husband.

Paul Dawson, board chairman of the bank, said Hill got $40,000 in $20 bills and $10,000 in $50 bills and put it in a briefcase.

When Hill got to his car, police said, a note under the front seat told him to disregard his previous instructions and to take the money to a designated room at the Norlin library at the University of Colorado campus.

MONEY VANISHES

The instructions told Hill to put the money on a shelf in the room, then go to the laundry and wait 10 minutes before coming out. Hill followed the orders — and when he returned the money was gone.

Police said an empty briefcase was found later in another part of the building.

After the first instructions were telephoned to Hill, the man quickly left the home. The man told Mrs. Hill to remain where she was for five minutes.

About seven minutes later, Mrs. Hill said she attracted a neighbor's attention by working her way to a window and cracking it with her head.

Income Tax Bill Ready For Filing

Would Levy 3 1/2% On Individuals

LANSING (AP) — A Republican legislator, who said an opinion poll in his district favored a state income tax, announced Friday he plans to introduce a bill levying one early in the 1967 session.

Rep. Roy L. Spencer, R-Attica said he is now having drawn up for presentation in the House a bill which would:

- Levy total income taxes of 3 1/2 per cent on persons, 6 1/2 per cent on corporations and 8 1/2 per cent on financial institutions.
- Repeal all existing city income taxes and replace them with a rebate to local governments of part of the money collected by the state levy.
- Refund 10 per cent of the existing property tax to the counties, mainly for redistribution to local units of government.
- Repeal the business activities tax and adjust the intangibles tax by exempting financial institutions and raising the personal exemption from $20 to $100.

LOCAL ALLOCATIONS

Some 1 1/2 per cent of each income tax would be returned to local governments.

Downtown Motel Is Torn Apart

Victims Mangled; Eight Injured

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A devastating explosion that killed six persons and injured eight in a downtown motel early today was caused by a bomb, county officials declared.

"It has to be a bomb. There's no question," said Dist. Atty. George E. Franklin. "We don't know if it's suicide or what."

Officers said the bodies of six persons were found in the rubble of wood and stones after the blast, and that eight persons were treated at a hospital. One victim was taken to emergency surgery.

SITE OF EXPLOSION

Officers said much of the Orbit Inn Motel was destroyed, that the explosion apparently occurred on the third floor. They continued to search the rubble, while firemen stood guard to prevent any secondary fires.

The blast occurred at 1:25 a.m., investigators said.

The dead were not immediately identified.

The injured were identified as:

- Lewis Palmer, 60, and his wife, Laura, 66, Preston, Idaho;
- Steve Merich, 70, and his wife, Katie, 57, San Pedro, Calif.;
- James Mahon, 24, and wife Bobbie, 22, Las Vegas; and Charles Pearce, 73, and wife Essie, Bishop, Calif.

Most suffered cuts and bruises, except Lewis Palmer, who was admitted for surgery, officers said.

RECOVERING BODIES

Deputy Coroner Harvey Schmitzer said "six occupants are unaccounted for, but we have, we think, six victims." He said the bodies of those recovered so far are extremely mangled.

Schmitzer said he found a skull in an alley across from the building, and that a woman's leg was found embedded in a brick wall.

He said authorities have asked for an FBI team to come from Washington to help with identification of the dead.

KLOMPEN FOR VIETNAM: U.S. Marine Sgt. Thomas W. Ryan of Kalamazoo, wrote to his home town asking for a pair of wooden shoes to combat Vietnam monsoon mud. ### Kazoo Marine Asks For Wooden Shoes

Gets Enough To Equip Small Army

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A Kalamazoo Marine sergeant who wanted a pair of wooden shoes to beat the Vietnamese monsoon mud now has almost enough "klompen" to build a small raft.

Sgt. Thomas M. Ryan of Company B, 9th Motor Transport Battalion, wrote a letter to The Kalamazoo Gazette last week asking for wooden shoes.

He said he learned of wooden shoes while on a tour of duty in Europe where he noticed Dutch farmers wearing them in the fields.

USEFUL IN MUD

"Over here in Dong Ha," he wrote, "we are, as you know, in the monsoon season. You can't believe the mud, sir. This is my reason for asking for wooden shoes."

Kalamazoo has many residents of Dutch descent. Many of them saw action in both World Wars. Others have sons in the service. So far they have responded with 11 pairs of the "klompen."

Mrs. Thomas Merlyn Ryan, the sergeant's wife said each pair of shoes she received for her husband had a story behind it.

Two pairs came from two teenage boys, both natives of the Netherlands who came to this country as youngsters.

"I know the shoes meant a lot to them but they were so proud when they presented them to me. Our country can be proud of kids like these," said Mrs. Ryan.

Others, who had no wooden shoes, gave words of encouragement.

500,000 Or More Involved

Torture And Killing Goes On Wholesale

By BOB UCHIMA

TOKYO (AP) — Dispatches from Peking reported today a series of bloody clashes have erupted between Maoist Red Guards and masses of workers in Nanking. A Japanese account said 54 persons have been killed, 900 wounded and 6,000 arrested.

A dispatch of the Czechoslovak news agency, CTK, reported that about 500,000 workers streamed into Nanking with the aim of wiping out that eastern Chinese city's Red Guard organization. It said 60,000 captives were taken by both sides and that they were tortured.

"Their fingers, noses and ears were chopped off, their tongues cut out," said the dispatch reaching Prague, the Czechoslovak capital.

POSTERS TELL STORY

The Peking correspondent for the Japanese news service Kyodo took his account from Red Guard wall posters in Peking.

He said one poster signed by a Red Guards revolutionary headquarters reported that 100,000 members of the "workers Red Corps" attacked the "cultural revolution organization" last Tuesday.

The poster said 14 persons were killed and 400 seriously wounded in this clash that also halted rail traffic in the area for two days. The dispatch quoted the poster as saying that the workers were led by Li Su-ying, identified as a secretary of the Kiangsu Communist party. Kiangsu is the east China province that includes Nanking.

The reference to the cultural revolution organization meant the Red Guards, militant youths who support Chinese Communist party leader Mao Tse-tung and his No. 2 man, Lin Biao. Mao and Lin have been carrying out a purge of anti-Maoists in what is called the great proletarian cultural revolution.

FIGHTING RESUMES

Kyodo said another wall poster signed by the Nanking Red Guards organization said large-scale clashes erupted again Thursday and Friday and that 40 persons were killed, 500 wounded and 6,000 arrested.

This time another provincial Communist party secretary, Hsu Chi-chun, was being held responsible for the clashes, Kyodo said. It added that the Red Guard poster claimed that Tao Chu-who is a deputy premier in Peking and a party propaganda chief, was behind the fighting.

At the same time Tao Chu's name appeared on a list of officials described as followers of President Liu Shao-chi, the main target of the purge.

Other Japanese correspondents in Peking reported that Red Guard posters condemned the president as a "black commander" and "commander of 'the bourgeois class.'"

School Improvement Election

The St. Joseph Board of Education has set February 13th as a special election date to decide some critical operational and construction problems in the district.

One proposal seeks an extra 8.8 mills to run the system through the 1967-68 season.

The second, divided in two parts, requests authority to bond the district for another $4 million in new plant and the renovation of existent structures.

The major allocation in construction is aimed at a bulge in the enrollment problem. Census projections indicate the junior and senior high school population will rise at a rate faster than the grade school enrollment through to the 1975 term.

The Board recommends a second junior high school at Lincoln avenue and Maiden lane to ease the pressure on the older building at Niles and Winchester avenues. The plan for the senior high school is more space for classrooms and better laboratory facilities. Included in the recommendation for the second junior high school is a swimming pool which will appear as a separate item on the ballot.

The balance of the bond issue would be devoted mainly to catching up on the maintenance of the present school building which for economy reasons the Board has been forced to put off too long.

The 8.8 mill request for operating funds is a one-year amendment of the present 6.5 mills for three years program which expires this June 30th. This present millage was finally voted into effect in 1964 after two previous efforts to obtain more funds had failed at the polls.

The reason for boosting this cushion by 2.3 mills and simultaneously reducing its time spread to a single year is found in the uncertainty facing St. Joseph and for that matter most districts in the state today.

A new law requires a school board to negotiate teacher contracts if the teachers demand this representative type of bargaining, and what the legislature can or will pass along to the districts in state aid is becoming more and more of a guessing game.

Long term thinking in school finances, consequently, has deteriorated from logic to hunch, and school boards generally are feeling it too perilous to ask for long term, hard and fast commitments in local taxation.

The construction proposal, particularly the junior high school portion of it, is a renewed attack on a gap in the so called master plan developed during the 1953 consolidation effort.

It was recognized at the time that the junior high school situation was being postponed for a future answer. The reason for putting it off was the reasonably well ground fear that the public would not support the cost of a complete package.

The prospectus unveiled this week simply says further delay could be catastrophic.

The high school expansion is merely an extension of what unexpected enrollment increases had already done to the master plan's forecasts. In 1963 the public approved the Brown and Clarke grade school grades for lack of room elsewhere.

The growth in the St. Joseph district and the instability in school financing are the twin roots of the Board's recommendation. They create an immediate responsibility which it would be dangerous to shrug off at this time and for that reason we urge acceptance at the ballot box next month.

Red Defections Grow

For the first time since the Viet Nam War began, desertions from the Viet Nam ranks are running proportionately higher than those from Saigon forces. Indicating a deteriorating morale problem for the Vietcong, not to mention the logistical problems, the desertion increase is the first solid indication of weakness in enemy forces.

So far, there is no proof the 90,000 estimated enemy desertions in the first 11 months of 1966 seriously crimped his activities; but with a force of about 280,000 in South Viet Nam, the loss of one of every three men to desertion must inevitably create some serious problems for the invaders.

Judged by the numbers of desertions, the Viet Nam War would seem to be one of the most unpopular conflicts with both sides in history. In 1965, government desertions reached 113,000 of a total strength of 571,000. No figures have been compiled for 1966, but government sources indicate they expect the total to be smaller, though troop strength has increased to 617,000.

It is interesting that deserters from both sides usually give the same reasons: the war has lasted too long, a man's place is at home with his family, and non-promotion. A difference has been noted in the last year in Vietcong defections to government forces. Frequently, the reasons include disenchantment with unfulfilled promises of the Vietcong, and fear of American artillery and air bombardment.

Another trend has been evident among Vietcong defections in recent months which in time will give Hanoi real organizational headaches. A growing percentage of the deserters are the more experienced members of Vietcong units and civilian cadres. The percentage of defectors from main troop units who had served the Vietcong more than one year rose from 35 per cent a year ago to 80 per cent recently.

Replacing such large numbers of defectors, particularly the more experienced — is a handicap already showing up in less frequent major offenses by the enemy. It is a weakness which may prove decisive in the war.

Let Em Drink Pop

Scientists may have found the perfect way to feed the underfed of the world, through soft drinks.

The canny boys with the test tubes have been successful in making artificial soft drinks which are tasty and loaded with high quality protein. Already one such drink, called Vitasoy because it is made from soybean extracts, has proved a commercial success in Hong Kong.

This is great, for hungry people who cannot get or will not eat meats and grains which supply proteins, will eagerly drink American soft drinks. This could change the course of history, vanquishing that vicious thief of physical and mental powers, protein deficiency.

Children of the world will consume their beefed up drinks, and quick as a wink, the Squirts will feel more Spritely, fairly Teeming with good health and high spirits, the Pepsi generation comes to life from the ads.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is having some success in interesting American soft drink producers in developing such drinks that might be profitable, nutritious and acceptable to other parts of the world.

It's a plan the whole world should like. Let's keep 'ab on it, to see if it is developed, and if so, what Coking it accomplishes.

Letters To The Editor...

Editor,
The Herald-Press:

MARCH OF CRIME

The resignation of Court Reporter Robert Palach comes as a shock to many. . . a regret to others but to those associated with the departments of law enforcement it is not one of surprise, but an increasing contempt of the administration of public justice and the corruption associated with the administrative, executive and judicial branches of government on all levels. In a short paragraph Mr. Palach said,

"New emphasis on the protection and rights of defendants has changed the whole atmosphere of courts and stripped much of its dignity. Criminals no longer respect the court, and their arrogant and belligerent attitude has killed my enthusiasm for court work."

In support of this statement let us go back in time. . . 1926 to be exact. I have before me a first edition of "The Criminal and his Allies" autographed and presented to me by Hon. Marcus E. Kavanagh, late Judge of the Superior Court, Cook County, Illinois, and dated March 23, 1926. He writes:

"We should all of us stop and consider as to just how long organized society can exist, depending as it does for the protection of life and property upon a system that is from fifty to ninety-five percent inefficient."

"Much nonsense has been written about the mysterious vagaries of the prisoner's mind. There is nothing mysterious about him. I have looked him in the face for thirty five years on the Bench and for fifteen years at the Bar, and I find he is just you and I plus laziness, selfishness and cruelty. Any person with these three attributes is likely to commit crime at any safe moment. The professional criminal shows no stigma except an aversion to work. Teach him the value and joy of work and he is no longer an outlaw."

Among the introductory remarks preceding the Judge's work and written by the late Wade Ellis, of Washington, D.C. we read:

"The word 'wave' connotes in the public mind, consciously or unconsciously, something that 'ebbs' and 'flows' and the popular conception of the high tide of lawlessness now (1926) assailing life and property all over the nation is that it is bound to subside; that it will be succeeded in due course by a low tide, and thus maintain the average of safety and good order."

This conception is not only false but it is dangerous. "The high point of importance," says the judge, "is that those who are disposed to commit crimes do not stand in awe of the law; and they do not do so because comparatively few are punished."

In a survey of the Missouri Association for Criminal Justice we read:

"The causes are numerous including inadequate and inefficient police departments, poor judicial systems, lack of coordination between examining magistrates, police, prosecutors and trial courts, indifference of juries to their public duties, technical attitude of appellate courts, easy going public attitude toward crime, sentimental and emotional pardons and paroles, forty-eight different trial jurisdictions with the opportunities thus offered for escape of defendants and witnesses, but the principal cause is the cumbersome, archaic and ineffective system of criminal procedure with the glorification of technicality and formalism, which it fosters and maintains."

Now, let us jump over the years from '28 to '66. Paragraph 2, page 433, "Principles of Criminology" by Edwin H. Sutherland and Donald R. Cressey, published 1966 reads, in part:

"... prosecutor is generally elected and, as is true of other officers, this means subservience to the wishes of the politicians. It also means distraction of attention from his official business for the sale of political activities. The prosecutor must be careful not to antagonize any large organized group, and his record must show a large proportion of convictions in cases which go to trial. It is customary for prosecutors to present statistics on this point . . . the prosecutor's reaction to crime must be, and is selectively punitive, that is if he is to continue in his position or advance to a higher political office. . . he must seek the severest punishments possible in most cases, but he must intentionally fail to prosecute others."

In the same paragraph we read: "Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court has claimed that the quality of prosecutors has 'markedly' declined and he observes that prosecutors 'sometimes, treat the court room not as a place of dignity, detached from the community, but as a place to unleash the fury of public passions.'"

So, from 1928 to 1967 the tide keeps rising, not because of a population explosion. That's an easy way out, but by sheer apathy by the nation at large. Were the populace as interested in writing their Congress and State Legislators as they are in mailing greeting cards, perhaps something bordering on an imitation of a Utopian dream would be within sight. Let us not waste our sympathy on the victim where it belongs. When a court reporter manifests his disgust with the administration of justice it ought to cause much uneasiness and concern.

speaking of YOUR HEALTH

By Lester L. Coleman, M. D.

Genetic counseling is a new idea which soon will be written and spoken about with greater frequency.

Vast amounts of information is now accumulating about genes, chromosomes and heredity. It is hoped that by the study of the genes, possibly before marriage, some people may be guided against the possibility of passing on to their children birth abnormalities and serious chronic disorders.

At the Duke University School of Medicine, Dr. Alexander Spock found a special protein in the blood of a child with cystic fibrosis. The same protein was found in the child's parents.

Out of this finding came the thought that there might be a way to tag and identify cystic fibrosis carriers. If this is definitely known, marriage and general counseling might spare many heartbreaks of inherited conditions both for the child and for the parents.

Research scientists everywhere are working on many phases of medicine that may eventually further such counseling programs.

It is hoped that well-known hereditary diseases like asthma, Buerger's disease, diabetes and others may be prevented by a greater knowledge of the parents' "carrier" potential.

It is the eventual prime aim that genetic counseling will be the very first step in true preventive medicine.

Patients with high blood pressure so severe that it threatens their lives have benefited from a new "crash" program to lower the pressure.

Dr. Frank A. Fennerty, Jr., and his associates at Georgetown university in Washington, D.C., have been gratified by the results of their concentrated attack on high blood pressure (Hypertension).

Sixteen patients were kept in the hospital on a regime of daily injections to lower the blood pressure.

The reaction was most gratifying. Severely sick patients with heart and kidney complications benefited markedly from this treatment of their high blood pressure. These patients were then able to continue on medicine by mouth to maintain the new and beneficial levels of blood pressure.

Nitrogen Mustard, the dreaded gas of World War I, may yet bring some constructive benefit to mankind.

At the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota, a form of mustard gas is being used for some types of crippling arthritis of the joints of the hands and knees.

The work, still in its infancy, is being pursued experimentally before being tried on a large scale in humans.

Opening lead — ace of clubs. Here is a somewhat unusual type of play frequently missed by declarer. The hand occurred in the Intercollegiate Bridge championship.

West was directed to lead the ace of clubs, the intention being to put East in the lead later to obtain a club ruff. West then shifted to a low diamond, which declarer won in dummy with the ace, East signaling with the seven.

From this point on, the play varied at the different tables. Most declarers, conscious of the danger of a club ruff, led a spade and refused to finess. They went up with the ace and continued with the ten.

Wit loses its respect with the good when seen in company with malice; to smile at the jest which plants a thorn in another's breast, is to become a principal in the mischief. — R. B. Sheridan.

BORN TODAY

Thirtieth president of the U.S., Millard Fillmore was born at Locke, N.Y., in 1800. He studied law privately, was admitted to the New York bar and practiced in Buffalo.

He entered politics as an Anti-Mason under sponsorship of editor and party boss Thurlow Weed, and followed Weed into the Whig Party. After serving in Congress, Fillmore ran for the governorship of New York.

Defeated, he was made comptroller of the party and was put on the Whig ticket with Taylor as a concession to the Clay faction. When he was elected vice president, Fillmore believed he had reached the high point of his career, but when Taylor died, Fillmore became president.

As president, Fillmore broke with Weed and William H. Seward, allying himself with the Alert defense now defeated the contract. West took the ten with the king and returned a diamond.

East won with the king and played back a club which West ruffed to produce the setting trick for the defense.

Some of the South players succeeded in making the contract in a perfectly legitimate way. They realized that only a club ruff could stop four spades, and they therefore took steps to forestall the ruff.

After winning the ace of diamonds at trick two, they led the king of hearts from dummy. When East followed low, these declarers discarded the jack of diamonds, thus trading a sure diamond loser for a non-existent heart loser.

This exchange had the desired effect. West took the ace of hearts but found his line of communication with East completely severed. There was now no way of stopping South from taking ten tricks.

The unusual play made by the successful declarers to destroy contact between the East-West hands is generally known as the "coup without a name." It is an entry-destroying play.

But with or without a name, the play can be highly effective, as it was in this hand. It's actually not a difficult play to execute; all you have to do is think of it.

Will Ask Recognition

New Group Would Replace Two Now In Operation

By JIM SHANAHAN
BH City Editor

Four Twin Cities area municipalities will be asked to approve ordinances creating a joint Community Relations Board to handle racial problems and others involving human relations.

Action is requested of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph cities, and the townships of Benton and St. Joseph to give legal recognition to a cause presently entrusted to volunteer groups or public agencies which are concerned with human relations as a quasi-duty.

The board would be a watchdog on community tensions and guardian of rights. It would not have police powers but the municipalities would be committed to full-fledged cooperation and "such assistance as may be reasonably required."

The proposal was presented this morning at a meeting of the Community Relations Advisory Board (CRAB) in Holly's restaurant Benton Harbor. If the municipalities enact ordinances, CRAB will be dissolved. The Twin Cities Human Relations Council will eventually disband if the legal creation does a competent job, according to Shannon Madison, council president.

BORN OF STRIFE

CRAB is a nebulous group born out of racial disturbances last summer. It has no official status and its only powers are those of negotiation and discussion. However, its contributions have been called significant because of mere recognition of problems.

The Human Relations Council has been increasingly active, especially in preschool and elementary education.

Representatives of the municipalities and other civic groups were invited to attend this morning's meeting where a sample ordinance was read. Formal presentation to the municipalities will be made later.

George Welch, co-chairman of CRAB, and Madison said the sample is only tentative and subject to change by municipal attorneys.

There is no mention of financing. Madison said the intention is to have a non-salaried director at the start.

Stated purpose of the 17-member Community Relations Board is:

"The board shall receive and may investigate claims and reports of tension, conflict and practices of discrimination or of efforts or activities of individuals or groups to incite discord, tension, hate and suspicion, or to place at disadvantage persons or groups because of race, color, origin or religion or ancestry."

"The board shall seek to correct situations which it finds to be endangering the peace and welfare of the community or to be unjust and discriminatory through investigation, public hearings, negotiation and education, and recommendations and proposals for ordinances."

Other provisions:

The board will be appointed by an executive council consisting of mayors of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, supervisors of the two townships, and the president of the Twin Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

The board will appoint a director and prescribe his duties.

Cooperative will be sought with educational, business, labor and religious groups.

A call for a permanent human relations board with legal status was issued last month by Madison when he became president of the Human Relations Council.

Others involved in drafting the proposal are Welch, the Rev. Ellis Hull, CRAB co-chairman; the Rev. Edward Goodman, director of Berrien County Council of Churches; the Rev. William Carter of CRAB; Gene McFadden, Benton Harbor Community Education director; Jack Middaugh of TRI-CAP; Will Branscomb, NAACP president; and Rabbi Irving Dick, moderator of the Human Relations Council annual meeting.

NEW TROY — The Weesaw township board meeting has been changed from the second to the third Wednesday (Jan. 18) so board members may attend the Michigan Township association meeting in Lansing for three days next week.

Supervisor Allen Boyd said the township dump is being kept open every day during the winter months on a trial basis. He said at the Jan. 18 meeting, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in the fire station, he will have more information about personal property tax and exemptions.

He has been treasurer of the Southwestern Michigan Conservatives Minister's Fellowship.

Official Meets With Planners

Building Project Cost Not Too Much If Needed, He Says

A State Department of Education official this week told Benton Harbor school district planners $25 million is not too much to pay for new buildings, if the district needs the structures.

Ralph Frostic, supervisor of the school bond loan program for the department, said anything short of basic needs will result in the need of another bond referendum later. Benton Harbor school planners are considering about $24 million in building projects.

Frostic's appearance was to explain how the state can help with financial aid, in the form of low interest loans.

Purpose of the state bond loan program is to provide buildings when they are needed and prevent a community being taxed at what may be considered an abnormally high level.

School districts presently levying at least seven mills for debt can have their annual principal and interest payments guaranteed. If the principal and interest exceed the local levy, the state would loan the necessary amount at a nominal interest rate. The seven-mill levy would remain in effect until the bonds were redeemed and the state repaid under an extended payment plan.

Loans also are available where the levy is less than seven mills for certain unusual circumstances like sudden loss of tax bases.

From 1955-63 only $650,000 of an authorized fund of $100 million was loaned. Loans have greatly accelerated since then as the legislature has changed the millage requirement from a maximum of 13 to seven.

The planners, meeting as a priority subgroup, have approved guidelines of a construction program which would cost about $24 million, excluding the purchase and development of sites. Included are a new high school, two middle schools, remodeling of existing buildings and conversion of Benton Harbor junior high school into administrative offices. Also included are plans for elementary school construction to house a total of about 7,000 students and two swimming pools.

Meanwhile, another ailing city commissioner is feeling "1,000 per cent better" and chafing at the bit to get back into municipal duties. F. Joseph Flaugh was discharged from Mercy hospital yesterday.

Flaugh said there is a slight possibility he may be able to attend Monday's commission meeting.

His doctor has told him to stay away from his insurance office for another week. Flaugh became ill on Christmas day.

Young Local Singer Will Perform At White House

MARK EAST, III, a young man from the Twin Cities area who has been rising rapidly in the entertainment world, will be among 40 selected members of the original cast of "Hello Dolly" who will render a command performance at the White House.

The performance before President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, is scheduled for Jan. 17, and includes Carol Channing in the lead role.

East, 23, joined the cast of the National Company last June. This company opened "Hello Dolly" on Broadway and currently is on tour.

The young singer, a tenor, plays a minor role in "Hello Dolly," as a baker. His career as a professional singer, however, spans only four years, during which time he has played with such stars as Marilyn Maxwell, Dorothy Collins, Orson Bean, Seth Riggs and Allen Jones, the singing father of popular singer, Jack Jones.

East is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark East, Sr., of 375 Montezuma road, Fairplain.

The elder East, who related details of the command performance, credited Miss Virginia Archer with helping his son get a start in the right direction. He said his son played lead roles in three musicals, while a student at Benton Harbor high school. He also played at Sister Lakes Playhouse. Miss Archer, former vocal instruction teacher at the high school, currently is on leave at the University of Illinois.

Young East was graduated from high school in 1961 and then attended music classes at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, and at Elmhurst college, near Chicago.

He since has performed in "Music Man," "Brigadoon" and "Student Prince."

Edwin Ray In Chicago Hospital

Benton Harbor City Commissioner Edwin Ray has gone to Presbyterian St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, for further tests.

Ray spent a week in Mercy hospital, went home Tuesday then entered the Chicago hospital Wednesday. A relative said it is not known how long he will be there. He was hospitalized the first time after being weakened from a bout with the flu.

Starless South Haven Rallies To Nip Bears

By JAKE SHUBINSKI
Staff Sports Writer

SOUTH HAVEN — With All-State center Kennedy McIntosh on the bench and the Rams down by as much as 15 points at one stage of the game, South Haven fans didn't have much to cheer about here last night as the Rams and St. Joseph Bears met for the first time since the 1953-54 season.

Even with 2:45 left in the game and the Bears on top by a 54-47 margin, it looked like a quiet night for the home fans.

However, before it was over, the backers of coach Joe Line-man's team went mad as Don Moorhead hit a jump shot from the corner with 25 seconds left in the game to give the Rams a 56-55 win over the Bears, only the fourth victory for the Rams in 56 tries against the Bears.

A fast break layup by Dick Lindenfeld that gave the Bears their seven-point lead with less than three minutes to play appeared to be the straw that broke the Rams' back.

However, the Bears were to score only one more point the rest of the night and South

Haven was destined to win its seventh straight game despite the absence of its great offensive and defensive star.

Fred Cunningham cut St. Joseph's lead to five points with a layup then center Tom Fritz, who took Kennedy's place at center, got the next three baskets.

The basket that tied the game at 54-54 came with a 1:43 left and was a tip-in on a missed free throw by Cunningham.

Twenty-one seconds later, Don Ellis, with the screams and stomping of feet by South Haven fans ringing in his ears, sank the first of his one-and-one free throw situation to give the Bears a 55-54 lead. His second hit the rim and bounced off.

After Moorhead's game-winning, the Bears got one more chance to pull it out. Coach Whitey Riemersma's crew used up nine seconds getting past the Rams' full-court press into the front court and Ellis got a shot off that was wide of the mark with nine seconds to play. The rebound went to South Haven and the Bears had suffered their fifth loss in seven games.

"The boys never stopped fighting. They wanted to win and just wouldn't be beaten," said a happy Lineman after the game.

South Haven led only three times during the contest. Larry Olson gave them a 2-0 lead then Moorhead put the Rams in front, 8-7, midway of the first quarter. The Rams' next lead was at the end.

With just over a minute left in the first period, the score was tied, 12-12. Then a three-point play by Mark Witkowski opened the door to 11 straight points by the Bears.

Fritz connected for the Rams to end the scoring drought. . . the only points scored by South Haven in the first five minutes of the second period.

In the meantime, Dick Cox and Chuck Radde were hitting from outside to move the Bears into a 20-14 lead with 3:25 left in the half. The next three minutes saw the Rams score 12 points and cut the Bears' lead to 35-26 at the half.

The Rams came to within three points, 40-37, midway of the third period on a basket by Olson but the Bears, on baskets by Lindenfeld, Radde and Ellis, moved back into a 45-37 lead with a bucket by Ron Ricca cutting the margin to 45-39 at the buzzer.

The Bears held leads of from five to eight points in the fourth quarter before the Rams made their victory drive.

St. Joseph held the hot hand in the first half with Lindenfeld's three buckets pacing a 19 point first period. Cox hit for eight points and Radde six in the second period when the Bears connected on seven of 13 shots.

This kind of shooting, combined with an eight-for-18 first quarter, gave the Bears a 49 per cent shooting mark for the first 16 minutes.

The second half was a different story as only seven of 28 St. Joseph shots found the mark bringing the overall shooting percentage down to 37 on 22 of 59 shots. It was still the Bears' second best shooting night of the season.

South Haven was more consistent and also posted a 37 per cent mark on 27 field goals in 74 attempts.

Even without McIntosh, the Rams came within two rebounds of beating the Bears on the boards. St. Joseph, with Ellis getting 16, took 42 rebounds. The Rams totaled 41 with Fritz taking 13 and Moorhead 12.

DOG SHOT FOR BEARS: St. Joseph's Dick Lindenfeld (5) has the jump on South Haven's Don Moorhead (22) as he drives in for layup to help keep Bears ahead during third quarter. South Haven rallied in final period for 56-55 victory, however, with Moorhead scoring 15 points. (Staff photo)

Cox paced the St. Joseph attack with 15 points. Radde was a close second with 13 and Lindenfeld scored 12.

Four Rams finished in double figures. Moorhead was the leader with 15, Fritz had 13 and Cunningham and Olson added 10 each.

The Bears won the junior varsity game, 56-51, to bring their season record to 3-5. Bill Prussing hit with 10 field goals and three free throws to bring his season's scoring total up to 145 points. Joel Raak scored 15 for the Bears. Dave Moorhead led the Rams with 19 points.

St. Joseph's next action will be at home next Tuesday night in the season's only meeting with Holland Christian.

KALAMAZOO — Benton Harbor's Tigers wouldn't let Kalamazoo basketball fans double their pleasure here Friday night.

Coach Don Farnum's boys proved to be reluctant victims as they came from behind to defeat Kalamazoo Loy Norrix 74-59 in the first game of a high school doubleheader at Western Michigan University's Red Fieldhouse.

Kalamazoo Central provided a happy ending for home town partisans in the audience of some 3,000 by taming the Battle Creek Bearcats 53-48 in the second game of the twin bill, but the Tigers had already spoiled any chances of a clean sweep.

The victory gives Benton Harbor a 4-2 record to take into tonight's game with Chicago Wendell Phillips at the Colfax gym and preserves coach Don Farnum's record of never having lost to Norrix in seven hardcourt encounters.

That record appeared in serious jeopardy through most of the first half last night as the Knights used a variety of defenses to avert what had the makings of a notable upset.

But guards Bud Cornelius and Larry Allen snapped the Tigers out of their early lethargy and L.C. Carrouthers came through with another big second-half performance to avert what had the makings of a notable upset.

"I've seen them play three times this year, and that's by far the best they've looked," Farnum said of the outmanned Knights. "Hackett killed them with a zone, but they were hitting like mad against us."

Farnum also was impressed by the performance of Norrix guard Charlie Fisher, who scored repeatedly on driving layups while accumulating 22 points that kept his team in the game most of the evening.

But in the end it was a tremendous rebounding advantage and the second-half scoring of Carrouthers that turned the tide for Benton Harbor.

Carrouthers scored only three points in the first 16 minutes but came alive with a vengeance in the second half, pouring in 20 more to lead both teams in scoring. Steve Woods cashed 16 and Cornelius 10, while Allen and Jim Kesterke teamed up for 17 more.

Carrouthers also hauled down 14 rebounds as the Tigers built a massive 48-25 advantage on the boards that helped offset a total of 19 turnovers.

Richard Davis pulled in 10 rebounds in his first starting assignment and did a fine defensive job on the Knights' high-scoring forward Steve Warren, who got 21 points in his last outing but only seven against the Tigers last night.

The game started out as a battle of zone defenses, but the Tigers quickly abandoned their 1-2-2 in favor of man-to-man tactics while the Knights shifted from a 1-3-1 to a variety of other alignments on cue from coach Bill Stufbergen's flash cards.

Victory just wasn't in the cards, however, despite considerable success with a zone press that caused the Tigers no end of trouble despite their preference for a wide-open game.

"We just haven't faced a press enough for our reactions to be automatic yet," Farnum explained. "There are always men open, but we just weren't hitting them."

Despite all their problems, the Tigers were never headed once they grabbed a solid lead at the end of the second quarter.

Woods scored half the Tigers points as they edged to an 18-17 lead in the first quarter and Cornelius came off the bench to pump in four baskets in the second quarter when they were forced to come from behind again.

Three quick layups by Allen put the Tigers ahead to stay at 34-32 late in the period and Davis added one more before intermission to give Benton Harbor a five-point margin that Norrix was never able to reduce.

Carrouthers carried the load in the remainder of the game with 10 points in each of the final two periods while Woods added seven in the third quarter and Kesterke seven more in the last seven minutes.

TIGER TRAP: Kalamazoo Loy Norrix forward Cal Elam (20) is caught in a trap by Benton Harbor Tigers as Richard Davis dives low to knock the ball loose while Steve Woods (25) and L.C. Carrouthers (55) move in to grab it. Also trying to get into the act is Norrix forward Steve Warren (42). (Ames photo)

Benton Harbor finished the game with a 45.2 shooting average by meshing 33 of 73 shots, while the Knights were just under 40 per cent with 25 of 63.

A wide disparity in fouls gave Norrix twice as many shots at the free throw line but produced only one more point as the Knights hit only 9 of 22 attempts while the Tigers connected on 8 of 11.

Slowdown tactics paid off for Kalamazoo Central in the second game as the Maroons scored their seventh victory in eight outings. Sam Simmons paced the victory with 19 points, while Eugene Brown tallied 17 for Battle Creek.

Heart Attack Kills Keane

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Johnny Keane, a central figure in one of baseball's most thrilling pennant races and then one of its most shocking managerial changes, died Friday night of a massive coronary occlusion. He was 55.

Keane, a scout for the California Angels at the time of his death, died at 10:30 p.m. at his Houston home. His physician, Dr. William C. Sutton, said Keane had had no previous heart attacks, although he had been under treatment for heart trouble and high blood pressure.

The quiet-spoken Keane, a dedicated baseball man who did his job with a minimum of fanfare, managed the St. Louis Cardinals to the 1964 National League pennant that was decided on the last day of the season. His team went on to beat the New York Yankees in the World Series, four games to three.

league games and two of eight overall.

Covert's Jayvees romped in the opener, 71-35.

Bees Sting Watervliet In 32nd Straight Loss

WATERVLIET — A revamped Bridgman team went on a scoring rampage here Friday night to extend southwestern Michigan's longest losing streak to 32 games.

The Bees hit on 47 per cent of their shots in the first half to run up a 39-23 lead in the first half, then used their height advantage to hold off the Panthers in the second half for an easy 80-53 Red Arrow conference triumph.

Coach Chuck Ridgeway has apparently solved Bridgman's biggest problem, a weakness at guard, by moving veteran Ralph Schmalz back from the front line and bringing up Bruce Rhew from the junior varsity.

He also had 6-5 giants Louie King and Randy Beeker exchange places, and Beeker responded by connecting for 18 points, mostly from the corner. King controlled the boards for the Bees and contributed 17 points, while Schmalz had 12 and Ron Ackerman 10.

Bob Koshar and Kerry Haus led Watervliet with 15 and 14 markers respectively.

"We tried to press them and it worked for a while," said Watervliet coach Joe Treat. "But in the second quarter they broke it by feeding the big man underneath."

Bridgman led by just 19-15 after one quarter, but broke open the game by outscoring the Panthers 20-8 in the second stanza.

"We just weren't hitting, and with those two big boys getting the rebounds, we didn't get many second chances," said Treat. Bridgman ended the evening with a 42 per cent shooting percentage, while Watervliet improved on a 33 per cent first half to end with a 37 per cent mark.

The win was the second for Bridgman in six starts this season and gave the Bees a 2-3 league record. The loss was the sixth this season for Watervliet, which hasn't won since January of 1965.

The 80 points was the most Bridgman has scored this season. The Bees' previous high was 74 against New Buffalo in their only other triumph.

Bridgman's junior varsity remained undefeated by edging

Watervliet 46-39 in the prelininary. The Panthers gave the Bees a scare, coming within four points in the closing minutes.

Watervliet tries again to end its losing skid Tuesday when it visits Eau Claire. Bridgman's next game is Friday, also against Eau Claire.

Niles Rolls Past Portage Northern

PORTAGE — The fast-breaking Niles Vikings combined hot shooting with a 58-40 rebounding advantage to wallop Portage Northern 95-76 Friday night for their fifth consecutive triumph of the season.

The Vikings, getting balanced scoring and using superior height to control the boards, jumped off to an early lead and never trailed. The Vikings broke it open by outscoring the Huskies 27-12 in the second quarter to take a 51-29 halftime advantage.

The Vikings hit on 50.3 per cent of their shots from the field, canning 40 of 79 attempts. Tim Klein led Niles with 24 points, followed by Claude Morgan with 20, Jim Mansfield with 18 and Craig Click with 17. Mansfield made seven of 10 field goal attempts in the first half. Leon Roberts paced Portage Northern with 23 points, while John Woodrow had 16 and Felix Skalski 14. The Huskies are now 1-2 in Big Six play and 2-5 overall.

Niles now stands 3-0 in league play and remains a half-game behind league leader Portage Central. The Vikings host the Mustangs next Friday in a showdown for the loop lead.

COVERT LOSES THIRD STRAIGHT

HOPKINS — All of a sudden, Covert basketball fans are concerned with a losing streak.

After winning 53 in a row, the Bulldogs have now lost three in a row, the latest defeat being administered here Friday night by the Hopkins Vikings, 77-66, in an Al-Van league game.

So now all of Covert's winning streaks are dead. The loss to Hopkins is the first league defeat the Bulldogs have suffered since Richie Jordan's Fennville club turned the trick on Jan. 31, 1964. Since that night, Covert had won 26 in a row within the loop.

It was the first victory for Hopkins over the Bulldogs in seven games and the Vikings had been unable to score more than 44 points in any of the six previous meetings.

By losing, Covert lost its undisputed league leadership. The Bulldogs now share the top spot with Bloomington, both teams having 5-1 loop marks.

The previous two losses suffered by the Bulldogs came at the free throw line but last night, Hopkins did it with field goals although it was close, 20-

28. The game was never close as Hopkins led by 26-14 at the quarter and increased its lead to 22 points with three minutes to play at which time Vikings coach Ron Venhuizen used his subs.

"One thing you can say about Covert is that they are good losers. . . they were gentlemen when they won and were gentlemen in defeat," declared Venhuizen.

Forward Don Walker and guard Dave Kerber wrecked the Bulldogs with 51 points. Walker scored 26 and Kerber totaled 25 as the Vikings hit on 30 of 64 shots for a 46 per cent average.

Fred Hill paced the Bulldogs with 28 points on 12 field goals and four free throws. He and his teammates hit on 28 field goals out of 70 attempts for 40 per cent.

Kerber and Walker lead the Viking rebounding with 12 each. Clarence Lauderdale had 16 for Covert.

The defeat leaves Covert with a 5-3 overall record while Hopkins has won only two of five

Sent To Lincoln Planners

Gives His Position On Grand Mere

Just what did Governor George Romney say in his telegram to the Lincoln township planning commission before it met Thursday to act on a rezoning request for a portion of Grand Mere?

Because both sides—the commission and the Grand Mere association—claimed comfort from the telegram, it is published here in full, as addressed to Commission Chairman Charles Knapp:

"To avoid possible misunderstanding resulting from my briefly worded telegram of Dec. 30, 1966, to Mr. Al Schoenbach, vice president of the Grand Mere Association, I wish to clarify my position on the proposed establishment of a state park in the Grand Mere area.

"There is an urgent need for an expanded state park system and good sites for new parks are in short supply. The Michigan Conservation Department and the governor's office endorse all recreational land use plans which can provide added facilities for an increasing state population so long as such land use plans are compatible with the total economic development of the local area involved and the state as a whole.

"It is imperative that each potential project site be carefully appraised to determine whether or not the development of park facilities is the best and most appropriate use of involved land. Local government has a primary role and responsibility in the zoning and rezoning of such lands. With respect to the Grand Mere area, it is my understanding that there is not yet any clear consensus at the local community level as to the best long-range use of the property involved. I have directed the Michigan Department of Conservation to have a representative available to attend the Jan. 5 meeting of the Lincoln township planning commission to discuss the park development alternative with local officials. I am confident that local officials working with state officials can develop a suitable plan for the most efficient use of the Grand Mere property.

"State legislation as introduced and funds appropriated in 1966 with respect to the acquisition of land for the establishment of a Grand Mere state park. The Michigan Conservation Department was unable to comply with the provisions governing the appropriation. It is anticipated that the 1967 Legislature will again review the feasibility of the establishment of a Grand Mere state park. If the Lincoln township planning commission feels that rezoning is necessary at this time then the commission should definitely discharge its local responsibility. On the other hand, it might be desirable for the Lincoln township planning commission to defer rezoning until a public hearing can be held between the Michigan Conservation Department, local officials, and interested citizens, in order that zoning action and legislative action can be coordinated.

"It is essential that the needs and interests of local community be carefully balanced against the needs and interest of the state as a whole. I hope that this clarifies the position of the Michigan Conservation Department and the governor's office with respect to the Grand Mere situation. The department and the governor's office cannot take a definitive position with respect to any specific plan that is offered by the Grand Mere association or any other private or public body at this time. The Michigan department of conservation is available to review and discuss any and all plans offered with respect to the future development of the Grand Mere area. Gov. George Romney."

Statement Issued By Krachey

President Of Grand Mere Assn.

Gordon Krachey, president of the Grand Mere association, an organization fighting to preserve the dunes area in its natural state, said today more than the rights of property owners are at stake in the controversy.

The Lincoln Township Planning commission Thursday recommended part of the Grand Mere area be rezoned for a planned development district with commercial, limited industrial, residential and recreation uses.

Krachey in a formal statement said: "Adjacent property owners have rights also and should be given the right to better the area far above that which was accepted in the rezoning petition."

The full statement by Krachey is as follows: "The acceptance of the Peter Manley rezoning request by the Lincoln Township Planning commission came as no surprise to the Grand Mere association. This was done under the poorly executed amendment (Sec. 5-B, Planned Development District) dated May 10, 1966 to the Lincoln township zoning ordinance, and which was contested by planning commission board member Paul Armbruster to no avail.

"After the above acceptance the planning commission then decided to have the township attorney publish the revised amendment—renamed section 5-C planned development district. This revised amendment was the planning commission's attempt to plug the many loopholes in the first amendment.

"Mr. Paul Dietrich of the planning commission read the motion to accept the zoning petition and his objection to not rezoning same was that he did not care for state parks. Planning commission clerk Christine Welsh also voted for the rezoning and gave her objection to the state parks due to the fact that it would be used by other than local people. At this point may we point out that a great deal of outside money is also brought into Lincoln township and furthermore would it not be a catastrophe if we people in the United States had to have passports to go from state to state and county to county and be denied to work in other areas.

"Chairman Charles Knapp of the planning commission could not understand the people of Lincoln township objecting to said rezoning, in which he stated that the people in South Haven and Lake township areas did not object to the destruction of their natural heritages, the sand dunes. He also stated that property owners had rights as to the use of their property which we of the Grand Mere association do not dispute but we do point out that adjacent property owners have rights also and should be given the right to better the area far above that which was accepted in the rezoning petition. We of the Grand Mere association urge all people interested in conservation, open spaces, unpolluted water and air, to joining our efforts to stop this wanton destruction of our land for short term gains.

NOTICE OF SALE
OF
$1,360,000 PRELIMINARY
LOAN NOTES
CITY OF ST. JOSEPH,
MICHIGAN
January 4, 1967

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the above identified local public body corporate (hereinafter called the "Local Public Agency") at 620 Broad Street in the City of St. Joseph, Michigan, until and publicly opened at one o'clock P.M., on January 17, 1967, for the purchase of $1,360,000.00 of notes of the Local Public Agency to be known as "Preliminary Loan Notes (Third Series A)" being issued to aid in financing the Urban Renewal Project, designated Project No. Mich. R-75. The United States of America has agreed to make a loan under Title I of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1450 et seq.), to the Local Public Agency to assist the latter in undertaking and carrying out such Project. By authority of said Act and with the agreement of the Local Public Agency, the said Notes are to be unconditionally secured as to the payment of both principal and interest by the United States of America. The full faith and credit of the United States will be pledged to such payment under an unqualified payment agreement endorsed on each of the Notes. Under said Act, such agreement is required to be construed by all officers of the United States separate and apart from said loan agreement and is incontestable in the hands of a bearer thereof.

THE NOTES will be dated February 15, 1967, will be payable to bearer on December 15, 1967, will bear interest from their date to their maturity at the rate or rates per annum fixed in the proposal or proposals accepted for the purchase of such Notes, will be issued in such denominations, and both principal and interest thereof will be payable at such incorporated Bank having such powers, as the purchaser designates in the proposal. Such Bank or Trust Company must be a member of the Federal Reserve System, or of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and must have an unimpaired capital and surplus of not less than the aggregate principal amount of Notes designated in the proposal or proposals submitted by the purchaser; provided, however, that such unimpaired capital and surplus need not exceed One Million Dollars. The Notes will provide that they are not valid until after such Bank or Trust Company has signed the agreement, appearing on each Note, to act as paying agent. The Notes will be transmitted to such Bank or Trust Company for delivery to the purchaser upon receipt and disbursement by such Bank or Trust Company of the purchase price thereof in accordance with instructions from the Local Public Agency. After taking delivery of the Notes, the purchaser shall obtain the signature of such Bank or Trust Company upon the Notes as aforesaid. All fees or charges, if any, of such Bank or Trust Company shall be paid by such purchaser.

SAID NOTES will be special obligations of the Local Public

Agency and will be secured by a requisition agreement between the Local Public Agency and the United States of America under the terms of which agreement the United States of America agrees to lend the Local Public Agency prior to the maturity of said Notes an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest of all said Notes and agree to cause so much of the proceeds of such loan as shall be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon any of said Notes to be deposited at the respective Bank or Trust Company at which said Notes are payable for the benefit of the holder or holders thereof. Under the proceedings authorizing said Notes, the proceeds of such loan payment will be irrevocably pledged first to the payment, at maturity, of the principal of and interest on said Notes.

THE VALIDITY of the Notes and said requisition agreement shall be subject to approval by attorneys designated by the purchaser in the Proposal. Complete certified transcripts of proceedings, including organization transcript as required, evidencing the validity of the notes and of said requisition agreement will be furnished such attorneys at least 5 days prior to the date of the Notes. The fees or charges of the attorneys shall be paid by the purchaser.

ALL PROPOSALS for the purchase of any of said Notes shall be submitted in a form approved by the Local Public Agency and shall be inclosed in a sealed envelope, addressed to the Local Public Agency, which should be marked on the outside "Proposal for Preliminary Loan Notes." Copies of such form of proposal may be obtained from the Local Public Agency at the address indicated above. Proposals may be submitted subject to completion pursuant to telegraphic instructions or proposals may be submitted in their entirety by telegram. Telegraphic instructions or proposals must be received by the Local Public Agency at or before the time above specified for the opening of proposals. A telegraphic proposal should identify and be made pursuant to the Notice of Sale, identify the Notes, and specify the principal amount, interest rate, premium, denominations, name of said attorneys, and place of payment of the Notes covered by the proposal. In view of certain statutory and policy limitations, no award of the Notes will be made at an interest rate per annum which is not less than Four and One-Eighth per centum (4 1/8%).

PROPOSALS may be for all or any part of the Notes, and separate proposals will be required for each part of said Notes for which a separate interest rate is bid. The interest rate specified for each part of said Notes shall be a multiple of one-hundredth (1/100) of one percent (1%). Said Notes will be awarded at the lowest interest rate or rates offered in the proposals, without reference to premium; provided, however, that, as among proposals specifying the same lowest interest rate, award will be made on the basis of the highest premium per dollar principal amount of Notes specified in such proposals. No bid for less than $50,000 principal amount of said Notes or for less than par and accrued interest (which interest shall be computed on a 360-day basis) will be entertained, and the Local Public Agency reserves the right to award to any bidder all or any part of the Notes which such bidder offers to purchase in his proposal, upon the basis of such proposal; provided, that if less than $50,000 principal amount of Notes is to be awarded to any bidder, such bidder will be relieved of the obligation to purchase such Notes upon written notice to the Local Public Agency within two days after notification of such proposed award. If only a part of the Notes bid for in a proposal are awarded by the Local Public Agency, the premium, if any, offered in such proposal shall be prorated, and said Notes will be issued in denominations in the order of the lowest denominations specified in such proposal; provided that one Note may be issued in a smaller denomination than is otherwise specified. The further right is reserved to reject any or all proposals.

SECTION 102 (g) of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1452), provides as follows: "Obligations, including interest thereon, issued by local public agencies for projects assisted pursuant to this title, and income derived by such agencies from such projects, shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States." In the event that prior to the delivery of any of the Notes to the successful bidder thereof the income received by private holders from obligations of the same type and character shall be taxable by the terms of any Federal income tax law hereafter enacted, the successful bidder may, at his election, be relieved of his obligations under the contract to purchase said Notes.
